Announcements:

Dave Granoff announced an upcoming program at Oswego Hospital on June 20th on the topic of allergies.

Today's Program: Bill Crist – 2007-08 Rotary Planning Guide

Bill spoke about his vision as incoming Club President for the 2007-2008 year. He spoke about his experiences at the PETS training seminar last March and his sense of pride in representing our Club at that event. He then highlighted a few significant items from an editorial of Wilfred Wilkinson, the incoming Rotary International president. The theme for next year is "Rotary Shares". Rotary has 1.2 million members from very different backgrounds and cultures. The common thread among these members is the sharing of time, expertise and financial support for the common good of mankind. Regarding the upcoming presidency for our Club, Bill spoke the Club's long history in the community. He encouraged members to read the words of Charles E. Riley about the Club's beginnings. Bill sees the importance in keeping members active and involved. He sees the importance in members inviting new member into the Club. Beginning next year, a sponsoring member will be recognized with a pin noting this distinction. Bill spoke about the Club's unsuccessful efforts to find housing for a male exchange student from Austria due to arrive in September. Joe Hutchinson responded with an offer to house the student for the first part of his stay in Oswego. Bill noted that Paul Scott has accepted the assistant governor's position for 2007-2008 representing the two Oswego and two Fulton clubs. Bill mentioned our Club's public relations program and thanked Harrison Wilde for all of his efforts on behalf of the Club. Bill would like to use the college radio station, WRVO and the high school station, WBUC to promote Rotary programs. Bill asked members to voice their thoughts on how to make meetings more effective. He has some new ideas for fundraisers which he will share with the board members. We thank Bill for his diligence and look forward to an exciting year for our Club under his leadership.
